

Montgomery Museum of Fine Arts News Release

Contact: Cynthia Milledge: 240.4369; cmilledge@mmfa.org

Tickets Now on Sale for the Montgomery Museum of Fine Arts Junior Executive Boards' Third Annual Art in Concert

Montgomery, AL—Junior Executive Board members recently announced The Pine Hill Haints will perform at this year's Art in Concert Friday, October 10, 2014 at 7 P.M. The four-member band, based out of Auburn, Alabama, is known for traditional bluegrass, folk, honky tonk and country music. Concertgoers can expect to hear tunes like, "Spirit of 1812," "Ghost Train," and "When You Fall."

The Owsley Brothers from Freeport, Florida will be the opening act. The "psychedelic garage blues band," is known for songs like "Rotten on the Vine" and "Blood and Fire."

Get your tickets now until October 8 at www.mmfa.org or call 334.240.4333. The cost is $10.00 in advance or $15.00 the day of the show.

The concert, which will take place on the lawn of the MMFA, will go on rain or shine. Food and beverages will be available for purchase. Don't forget your blankets and lawn chairs. Remember no coolers are allowed.

The JEB thanks Stivers Ford and AUM for their lead sponsorship of Art in Concert.

Thanks to our other Art in Concert supporters: Hannah Chadee, Dr. Thomas Whisenhunt, Davis Direct, Thompson Insurance, Pfeiffer Torode, Central Alabama Electric Cooperative, Dr. Porcia Love, and an anonymous donor.

The Montgomery Museum of Fine Arts Junior Executive Board (JEB), composed of 37 dynamic River Region young professionals, builds awareness of the Montgomery Museum of Fine Arts through the planning and promotion of events appealing to other young professionals. The proceeds from those events benefit the Museum's acquisition, exhibition, and education programs. Members are hand-selected from the community and serve a one-year term. If interested in becoming a JEB member or a member of its affiliate group, Mixed Media, please send a short cover letter and resume to jbarry@mmfa.org by November 14.