

Exhibitions of Student Art in the ARTWORKS Corridor Gallery 2017

Discover how your students may exhibit their artwork at the Museum. Exhibitions in the ARTWORKS Corridor Gallery are designed to go hand-in-hand with major exhibitions (with a few exceptions each year). Entry forms are available by request. A jury of art professionals selects the works for each show. For more information check out the Museum website at www.mmfa.org or contact Kaci Norman, 334.240.4363 or knorman@mmfa.org.

Emergent Viewpoints: Art in Alabama Today

Exhibition Connection: Uncommon Territory: Contemporary Art in Alabama

Artwork Due: Friday, November 3, 2017

Exhibition Dates: November 16, 2017 through January 21, 2018

Eligibility: Middle School through College

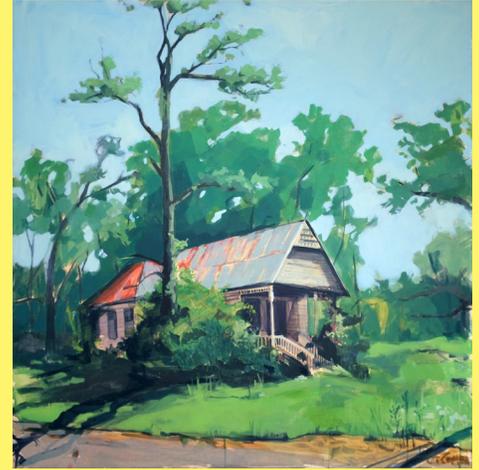

Project: This exhibition, which is open to middle school, high school, and college students will highlight emerging young makers. Contemporary student artists who are using materials in an innovative way or who have altered the way we understand traditional art forms like painting, photography, and sculpture are invited to submit. We will showcase a mixture of two-and-three-dimensional artworks that celebrate innovation, creativity, and a fresh perspective on the world we live in, our place in it, or any concept the artist wishes to explore. Submissions may include photographs, paintings, sculptures, prints, and mixed-media. Each entry should include a brief (100-word maximum) artist statement. A group of professionals will jury the show to determine which selections will be exhibited.

Size: Entries may be no larger than 18 x 24 inches. Photographs and works on paper must be presented in mats. Three-dimensional works of art may not exceed six inches in depth and must be ready to hang on the wall.

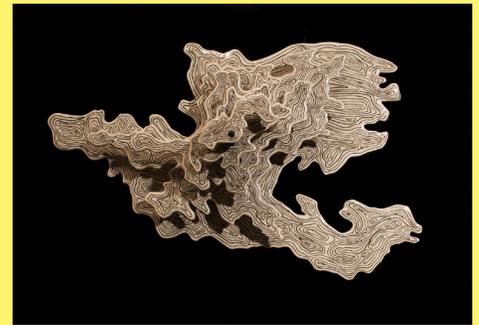

The Museum is grateful to Regions Bank and the Junior Executive Board for their sponsorship of ARTWORKS Corridor Exhibitions.
